2017 Season

The South Miami Youth Baseball League is preparing to throw out the first pitch on its 52nd year anniversary, new season and we're looking for players, coaches, sponsors, Travel Team and Volunteers.

New Division's – Recreational & Travel Competitive League going Forward.

Why South Miami Youth Baseball League?

... The league is a non-profit baseball organization, which offers Recreational league play, Travel Ball and All-Star games.

... South Miami Youth Baseball League was founded over 50th years ago. We have the experience to provide your child with a solid foundation in baseball fundamentals.

... Palmer Park (at South Miami Middle School) is one of the finest fields in Dade County, with lights and batting cages.

... Parents and relatives are actively involved with their child's baseball experience in a competitive, yet friendly environment. All children get an opportunity to play in every game.

... Full or partial scholarships available upon league approval.

Managers, Coaches, Umpires, Team Moms

Since exclusively parents and volunteers coach the League, we need your help - no experience necessary! We offer coaches clinics and umpire training. We urge every parent to get involved with his or her child's team.

Season Schedule

Team assignments and practices will start in December. Regular Season games early Jan. 2017 till May, depending on playoff schedules.
